PRESS RELEASE

National Education Day Celebrated

On the Occasion of 123th Birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, National Education Day was celebrated at Central University of Bihar, Prof. M. Nehal, Registrar, Central University of Bihar while giving the welcome speech made interesting mention of the famous book entitled India wins Freedom.

Prof. Imtiaz Ahmed, Director, Khuda Bakhsh Oriental Public Library highlighted Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's works and vision as the chief guest. He said that Maulana Azad made commendable contribution in the making of a modern India. He was a rare combination of literature, statesmanship, journalism and patriotism, besides being an ardent believer of Hindu-Muslim unity. He further believed that world peace can only be brought by Free Primary Education to all.

A Speech Competition on Maulana Azad was organised on this occasion, in which Neha Kumari, Satyendra Kumar Siddharth and Rikki Raj won the first, second and third prize respectively.

Dr. Rajshree Padhi, faculty of Development Studies and Md Noor Ali, Student of Communication and Media Studies made their Slide Presentation on various facets of Azad.

Vice-Chancellor Prof. Janak Pandey said on the occasion in his speech that Maulana Abul Kalam Azad dismantled all kinds of boundaries of religion and ethnicity.

Mrs. Archana Kumari, Faculty, Communication and Media Studies, delivered the vote of thanks.

Prof. Debdas Banerjee, Dean, School of Social Sciences and Policy, Central University of Bihar, other faculty members and students were present on this auspicious occasion.
